Description: Book; Red cloth covers with gray spine that wraps ? to both boards, pages are speckled on the edges. Gold titles and ornate design to spine only with ornate gilt design of authors initials on front board. Authors initials design also on both gray endpapers. Contains 40 full page illustrations (25 are by Kent) set the Cambridge Text, plus Temple Notes, Indexes, Glossary and a Modern Synopsis of each play. Dust jacket; Illustration on front panel with red, gold and black background, black and white titles. Not price clipped. Condition: Book; Very good. Bright, tight and clean copy without marks to boards or pages. Speckled design has now faded on the top edge, the spine moderately sunned but the gold titles are still strong. Top and bottom of spine lightly rubbed, top points dinged and all points are lightly rubbed. Dust jacket; Good. Jacket is clean and free of marks but delicate and now protected in Brodart. Chips and creases to all edges, closed tears along the creases of the spine and foxing on the spine have caused several chips and missing pieces to that area. If you only have room for one Shakespeare on your shelf, this is one to have
