

David Copperfield (Great Illustrated Classics)

Growing Up! Young David Copperfield, orphaned as a child, abandoned by a vicious stepfather, must learn to make a life for himself. In Charles Dickens brilliant novel, we learn of Davids early harsh years... his adoption by his eccentric aunt... his betrayal by a childhood friend... the pressures of starting a career... immature, young love... and finally career success and personal happiness. Charles Dickens sensitive portrayal of Davids early years has made David Copperfield one of the worlds most beloved novels.
