

Freshwater (Italian Edition)

A Freshwater, sull'isola di Wight, il filosofo Charles Cameron passeggia, il poeta laureato Tennyson compone versi, il grande pittore Watts dipinge e Julia Cameron fotografa: sono tutti in attesa che i Cameron possano partire per l'India, non appena saranno consegnate due bare capaci di resistere all'attacco delle termiti in agguato nella giungla. A fare da Musa alla loro arte, giovane e bellissima, ce Ellen Terry, moglie di Watts e attrice di teatro, costretta a posare per ore intere, immobile, drappeggiata come una dea della Grecia antica. Improvvisamente all'orizzonte attracca una nave e ne salpa John Craig, tenente della Marina di Sua Maestà, destinato a rompere quell'arcadico idillio. Con penna colta e mondana, nell'unica commedia che abbia mai scritto, Virginia Woolf mette in scena l'eterno e comico rincorrersi di amore, desiderio e bellezza, il tentativo proprio all'arte ma soprattutto alla vita di ingannare il tempo, per riuscire a fermarlo. A chiosa del testo, il ritratto di Julia Margaret Cameron, quello di Ellen Terry e il racconto Una scena dal passato ambientato a Freshwater, tradotti qui per la prima volta. devo ricordarmi delle immense possibilità di Freshwater per una commedia. Il vecchio Cameron in vestaglia blu e che per dodici anni non va oltre il suo giardino e che improvvisamente afferra il mantello del figlio e cammina fino al mare Virginia Woolf, Diario
