

Jane Eyre

This book is a realistic novel with a strong romantic flavor and it is the famous writer Charlotte Brontes masterpiece in the 19th century. In the book the love story between Jane Eyre and Rochester reflects Jane Eyres tortuous experience that in a society where money and status are above all, Jane Eyre was born poor and had no support as a family teacher. The book creates an unyielding from secular pressure and aggressive female image and it eulogizes a beautiful ideal of a strong and independent personality, independence and equality.
