

The Imaginary Invalid: An Adaptation

To reduce his medical fees, hypochondriac M. Argan decides to marry off his daughter Angelica to a physicians son. Unfortunately, Angelica loves Cliante. Argans brother Biralde and Toinette, an inventive maid, save the situation for the lovers and expose Mme Argans schemes to bleed her husband of his fortune. Then they persuade the hypochondriac to turn physician so that he can quack himself free of charge.

The obscenely crude Argan is a hopeless hypochondriac who has seen his considerable wealth drained by an endless parade of charlatan doctors and their
