Excerpt: ...am as sure of it as that I stand here. Eustacia has told me. He did pay her a little attention a year ago; but there's no harm in that. I like her all the better. Clym, said his mother with firmness, I have no proofs against her, unfortunately. But if she makes you a good wife, there has never been a bad one. Believe me, you are almost exasperating, said Yeobright vehemently. And this very day I had intended to arrange a meeting between you. But you give me no peace; you try to thwart my wishes in everything. I hate the thought of any son of mine marrying badly! I wish I had never lived to see this; it is too much for me
